> Absolutely terrible service took 30 minutes for someone to get to my table and then atleast 40 minutes for my food. The restaurant was extremely slow and the food was terrible def not real tacos they taste burnt and have no flavor. If I could rate the service zero stars I absolutely would highly do not recommend there was also an eye lash in my food and it was not sanitary please save your self and find somewhere else to go there's 100 taco spots better than this one and the food is outrageously over priced 80$ for 10 tacos after tax is absolutely absurd

> Disappointing experience. A lot of basic things were mishandled that should never be an issue. We ordered a platter meant for the whole table and were never given proper serving utensils, making it difficult just to eat. We asked multiple times for peppers, limes, and drinks. Our waiter walked past our table over and over but didn't bring anything. After waiting 15-20 minutes for sides , the food we ordered was cold, and at that point we didn't even need it anymore. On top of that, we were only given two peppers for a table of five, which makes no sense after that long of a wait. Another thing that made the experience uncomfortable was the waiter wearing Meta glasses. It didn't feel professional, and it's concerning not knowing whether you're being recorded while trying to enjoy a meal. This was my first time eating here after hearing friends hype it up, and it honestly left a bad impression—especially considering this is a new location and we chose this place to celebrate a friend's birthday.

Definitely not a place. I'm gonna be going back to. They're totally fine with people who represent their business trashing other businesses. I'm not OK with that. The tacos are subpar. When somebody reaches out to you and you completely ignored them that's not a good luck. I gave y'all two weeks that was enough. Way too many other amazing taco places in Atlanta then to go support this place.

Got seated right away. But the the waitresss never checked on us , didn't ask for drinks or food. After waiting more than 15 minutes got up and went to bar where we were served right away. All good there. I parked in the garage , I paid 2 hrs to park and they cover the first 2 hours of parking. I was there for 2hrs and 24 mins . Not even a week later I get a parking ticket from the garage for $108. I had total of 4 hrs and now I am wasting my personal time disputing the ticket . Will not ever come here again .
